

Colonel Jimmy E. Hall assumed the position of JROTC Program Coordinator and Senior Army Instructor (SAI) at Monarch High School on October 20, 2014.

Colonel Hall began his military career with the U.S. Army Reserve on December 1, 1980. He was assigned to the 479th Ordnance Company in Clarksdale, Mississippi as an Ammunition Specialist (55B). Colonel Hall held the rank of Specialist prior to his commission at Mississippi Valley State University as a Second Lieutenant in the Adjutant General Corps in 1985 where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice. He is a graduate of the Adjutant General Basic and Advanced Courses, the Combined Arms and Services Staff School, the Command and Staff General College, Nuclear, Biological and Chemical School, Career Management Officers, Human Resource Management, Army Reserve Personnel Managers, Third Recruiting Brigade Marketing and Missioning, Recruiting Operations and Recruiting Officer Commanders' Courses. He holds a Master of Business Administration from Columbia Southern University.

Colonel Hall's previous active duty assignments include serving as the Special Assistant to the Commanding General at the Soldier Support Institute, Fort Jackson, South Carolina from January 2012 to April 2014; Serving as the Deputy Director, Human Capital Core Enterprise, Office of the Chief Army Reserve, March 2011 to December 2012; Chief, Reserve Component Land Forces, Manpower and Personnel Directorate, United States Army Central Command, May 2008 to February 2011; One-year deployment to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia serving as a Liaison to the U.S. Embassy in Saudi Arabia and as the Director of Personnel (J1) for the Office of Program Management, Facilities Security Forces, February 2009 to February 2010; Chief, Military Mobilization Branch, Department of the Army, G1, July 2005 to May 2008; Career Manager and Chief, Officer Management Division, Army Human Resources Command – Saint Louis; Chief, Personal Affairs Branch, 75th Division (Training Support), December 2000 to September 2003; Assistant Professor of Military Science, Wake Forest University Army Reserve Officer Training Corps, August 1998 to December 2000; Army Reserve Recruiting Operations Officer, Great Lakes Recruiting Battalion, January 1996 to July 1998. Colonel Hall has served in a wide array of Army Reserve assignments to include Company Command, Battalion and Brigade Adjutant.

Colonel Hall's awards include the Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal (one oak leaf cluster), the Meritorious Service Medal (six oak leaf clusters), the Army Commendation Medal (three oak leaf clusters), the Army Achievement Medal (six oak leaf clusters), the Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal (two oak leaf clusters), Armed Forces Reserve Medal with silver hour glass, M-device and number 2, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary and Service Medals, National Defense Service Medal with star, Overseas Service and Army Service Ribbons. He also has the Department of the Army Staff Identification Badge, Joint meritorious Unit Award as well as the Army Superior Unit Award with one oak leaf cluster.

Colonel Hall and his wife Lisa have two daughters, Stephanie Hall and Stella Barnes, and a son, Sergeant Curtis Barnes who is currently serving in the Army.